PASTORS COLUMN

Happy Pentecost! May you be filled with the Gifts of the Holy Spirit and bear the Spirit's fruits.

As I mentioned last week, I was mistaken about our plan for the Appeal for Sts. Peter and Paul. We would like to repair the parking lot on New York Ave. We already have $5,000 of the $16,000 needed for that work. Everything SPP raises above its Appeal goal will go to this purpose. Your assistance is greatly appreciated.

Please pray for our young people who will be confirmed in Chillicothe this Saturday.

Please continue to submit your nominations for the Pastor's Advisory Board through the last Sunday in May.

PARISH ADVISORY BOARD

HOLY TRINITY, ST. SYLVESTER, STS PETER & PAUL

We need your nominations for our upcoming election for our Parish Advisory Board. We would like to thank Sue Wells, Jeff Elliott & Kathleen Bledsoe for your years of service. These Board members have completed a three-year term. Election nomination slips are in each pew and can be added to the collection baskets.

Congratulations to our 2024

Graduates. We will have our coffee and donuts following in the Hall after the Holy Trinity Mass. We will also have a graduation cake for all to celebrate our Graduates.

Our Summer Community Outreach Project will be collecting Personal Care Items for the St. Francis Center. We have plastic totes in each church. A St. Francis employee will pick up items each week. We are thankful for your help and generosity.

Please Note: Holy Trinity will have Mass on Saturdays at 4 PM beginning May 25th – until Labor Day. No 8 a.m. Mass. We are excited to kick this off with a Parish Picnic on June 1st following Mass at Holy Trinity. A brisket
