PASTORS COLUMN

Happy Mother's Day! Thank you to all our mothers for all you have done in nurturing and bringing up your children with love.

It is time for the Appeal 2024 for the Diocese of Columbus. Our goals are as follows: $16,315.74 from Holy Trinity, $15,990.32 from Sts. Peter and Paul, and $8,005.24 from St. Sylvester. None of our parishes met their goals last year, as I am sure will not surprise you. In the past, parishes have not been penalized for failing to meet Appeal goals. This will no longer be the case. What we do not raise towards our goals this year will result in an increase of the diocesan assessment, so that a smaller percentage of our Offertory would go to our local needs. Needless to say, this would not be good for us.

Exceeding our goals, however, still has the benefit of the excess not being subjected to the assessment. For Holy Trinity, we would continue to set aside money for our facilities, for Sts. Peter and Paul, our excess will continue to pay off our debt, and for St. Sylvester, the excess will replenish the Parish Aid Fund. We have an obligation to support the operation of the whole diocese in a fair proportion, and it would be better for us to benefit in the process.

If you have not received a mailing, please fill out an envelope in the church. Even if you can only contribute $5, please do. If you do not intend to contribute, please indicate that on an envelope and turn that in. Thank you for your consideration and generosity.

PARISH ADVISORY BOARD

HOLY TRINITY, ST. SYLVESTER, STS PETER & PAUL

We need your nominations for our upcoming election for our Parish Advisory Board. We would like to thank Sue Wells, Jeff Elliott & Kathleen Bledsoe for your years of service. These Board members have completed a three-year term. Election nomination slips are in each pew and can be added to the collection baskets.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY. MAY YOU HAVE A BLESSED DAY!
